

Eduardo Saad-Diniz

Professor at the University of São Paulo – campus Ribeirão Preto, Brazil Senior Fellow at The Carol and Lawrence Zicklin Center for Business Ethics Research (Legal Studies and Business Ethics – The Wharton School – University of Pennsylvania, USA).

eduardo@saaddiniz.com.br

Education

PhD, University of São Paulo – São Paulo Law School (2010, “Person and Enemy in the Criminal System” – highest distinction); PhD-Sandwich Program at the University of Regensburg, Germany (2009, Scholarship DAAD/CAPES); BA, University of São Paulo, São Paulo Law School (2005 – with FAPESP Scholarship – “Criminal System and Risk Society”)

Career and Academic Positions Held

Since 2011 is Professor at the University of São Paulo –Ribeirão Preto Law School, Brazil. Director of PhD Thesis and Masters Dissertations at the University of São Paulo, Brazil at the São Paulo Law School and at the PROLAM-USP (Program for Latin American Integration); Director of Scientific Researches (FAPESP-IC; CNPq and CAPES) and Independent Projects on GRC and CSR; Former Professor of Criminology at the University of the State of São Paulo – Unesp-Franca (2011 – Teaching Award in 2016), Brazil; Expert on Victimology at the University of Seville (2010), Spain

Former Attorney on Electoral Law (until 2010). Consultant at the Worth Street Group-Brazil (2015). Member of the International Association of Penal Law (IAPL/AIDP – since 2011); Member of the Board of Directors of the Brazilian National Group; Member of the AIDP-Young Penalists International Committee (2014). Has published papers in Portuguese, Spanish and English (philosophy and sociology of law; criminal law; criminology; business ethics and corporate compliance); (full CV available at <http://lattes.cnpq.br/8826346387648821>)